

August 2023

Data Quality Assessment Report

Hameed Jasim

`jasim007.hj@gmail.com`

`https://www.linkedin.com/in/hameed-jasim/`

`https://jaxzie.github.io/portfolio.io`

`https://www.github.com/Jaxzie`

SUMMARY

---

- Total startups in the dataset: 776
- Total investors: 980
- Total amount raised by startups over 2-year period: 3 billion
- Revenue-generating startups: 243 out of 776
- Highest amount raised by a single startup: 580 million (THREE HUNDRED CO)
- Lowest amount raised by a single startup is (ONE HUNDRED THIRTY CO)
- The total amount raised by startups increased by approximately 37.84% over the two-year period, from 1.11 billion to 1.53 billion.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

---

The eCommerce industry has generated the highest amount, which is 1.03 billion, whereas the Events industry has generated the lowest amount, which is 43,000.

The percentage difference between the highest amount generated by the eCommerce industry (1.03 billion) and the lowest amount generated by the Events industry (43,000) is approximately 99.9958%.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

The UAE generated 1.98 billion in startups, whereas Saudi Arabia generated 0.6 billion the percentage difference between the startup generation in the UAE (1.98 billion) and Saudi Arabia (0.6 billion) is approximately 66.67%.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

March 2017 witnessed the highest amount generated over the two-year period, with a total of 0.62 billion, showcasing a substantial increase from the 0.1 billion generated in March 2016.

FINANCIAL SUMMARY

---

From a pool of 776 investors, when considering the top 10 primary industries, a notable 21.23% showed a preference for eCommerce. Following this, the subsequent preferences were towards fintech, technology IT, and healthcare.

